Dear Parents/Guardians:

As the end of the first grading period is rapidly approaching I want to take a moment and ask you to review your son/daughter's progress.

How would you rate their Academics: Are they motivated to do well in school? Are you checking their grades on Progress book? How would you rate their Attendance: Are they eager to attend school and get their graduation requirements finished? How would you rate their Social/Emotional life: Do they have good friends? Do they seem happy?

We know how difficult it is to raise teenagers in today's challenging environment. We are all here to assist you as best we can. So please mark your calendars for Thursday, October 25th, 2018 parent/teacher conference night here at Schnee. The new time is 4:00 pm until 7:00 pm.
