

Dear Schnee Families:

As winter and inclement weather are here, please know that we will post school closings on the local Fox News Channel and send an All Call to the contact phone numbers that you have provided.

Upcoming Events: End of Course Testing

We will test our hybrid students on Tuesday, December 8th, Wednesday, December 9th, and Thursday, December 10th. Each day there will be a morning testing session and an afternoon testing session. Students may take 1 test on a given day or they may take 2 tests on a given day depending upon their need. Students have received a testing ticket (or will receive one if they were absent on 12/3) to explain their schedule. The school times will remain the same, so please have your student present on Tuesday 12/8 at 8am. Yes, this does mean we will be open on Wednesday 12/9. There will be no regular classes held on these days, only testing.

Students who are online only will be tested separately.

December 17th: The last day of the 1st semester

December 18th: No school for students.

December 21st - January 3rd: Holiday Break

Monday, January 4th, 2021: School resumes

Tuesday, January 5th, 2021: First day back for hybrid students.

Stay healthy and safe during this holiday season.

Sincerely,

Tony Pallija
